

About Registration

In the first national single database electronic identification of animals of Kazakhstan AnimalID.kz can be registered, animals identified by microchip.

Registration in the First National single database of electronic identification of animals of Kazakhstan - AnimalID.kz provide round the clock online access to information about your animal. This will help you to return the animal if it is lost, use the registration information at border crossings, insurance, exhibitions, a veterinarian, etc.

All information about a registered animal falls into a similar international databases.

To register or make changes to registration data should:

- Fill out the registration form;
- To pay for registration (all microchips purchased in our store are recorded free of charge);

